A little rain is badly needed in these parts.

Common Pleas Court in session—Judge Haines presiding.

The Deputy Collectors are hunting delinquent taxpayers.

Full sets of quoniamware, for sale cheap, at Mikesell & Jaqua's.

Local items, like greenbacks, are very scarce.

Miss Carrie Smith came back on Monday last.

Fresh vegetables of all kinds for sale every day, at Mikesell & Jaqua's.

Indiana will probably gain two Congressmen under the new census.

Miss Amanda Way was in town last Thursday, visiting her relatives.

Wheat harvest will soon be through in this county. Many of our farmers have already finished cutting.

Sugar, tea, coffee and all other staple groceries constantly on hand at Mikesell & Jaqua's.

Uncle Jesse Way has moved his grocery store to the east side of the Public Square.

J. Enos Neff has our thanks for delivering the State Sentinel to us every morning.

Gen. Tom. Browne's horse died on "general principles"—a disease not laid down in the books.

Mikesell & Jaqua sold the first green apples in this market. You'll always find them up with the times.

D. M. Bradbury is a good hand at mowing. Farmers need not call to employ him until court is over.

All who do not know that Boots and Shoes are selling at reduced prices, can be convinced of the fact by calling at J. Elliott's, No. 3, North Front.

J. S. Way has moved his horse back, and moved another in its place. When completed, he will have a nice, comfortable home.

Richey Beard has moved his old house back, and is building a new two-story in its stead on West Franklin street.

So many new pavements are being put down, and fences and houses painted, that we find it impossible to give them separate notices.

We hear of several marriages on the tapis, in town and neighborhood. The idea of getting married this hot weather. Ugh!

Our Devil recommends the young men who desire to know the ages of their girls, to interview Reynolds on the subject.

Grain cradles, harpoon horse hay forks, scythes, snathes, 2 & 3 prong hay forks, revolving and sulky hay rakes, table cutlery, &c., cheap at Moore's Hardware Store.

Our gentlemanly Post-Master, F. M. Way, has resumed specie payment. He gave a Democratic friend of ours an old-fashioned three cent piece last Saturday morning.

The Democratic Central Committee have selected the following gentlemen as Delegates to the Congressional Convention, which meets at Hartford City, Thursday, July 21: Alex. White, Gideon Shaw, Capt. Asa Teal, Capt. John P. Fredrick, Judge Smith, Wm. C. Hendricks, Levi James, William Drew, Samuel Taylor and Ben. Shaw.

DIED.

In this city on Tuesday evening, July 6th, 1870, CLIFFORD H., infant son of Col. and Mrs. A. W. Prather, aged about four months.

The bereaved parents have the sympathy of the community.

Up to the hour of going to press, nothing has been done in Court, except trying a few cases of misdemeanor.

The Greenfield Woolen Mills were burned on the 20th ult. The loss is nearly $12,000. The Mills will be rebuilt.

The article of "J. H. M." is respectfully declined on account of its length and for various other reasons. We can not publish articles written and intended for other papers, after their rejection by them.

Prof. J. Cooper and family have moved to town. They are living in R. B. Morrow's late residence, on South Meridian street. The Professor is a valuable acquisition to our town, and we welcome him to his new home.

E. B. Reynolds is making the "grand rounds" in White River Township. He's rather an inquisitive young man; but as it costs thirty dollars to refuse to answer his questions, people exercise patience with him.

Persons wishing a correct Photo. of their Residences, Business Rooms, &c., should not fail to call on Dean, the expert Photographer, who will take them any size at very reasonable rates. Mr. Dean stands pre-eminent in this branch of the art.

At the Sabbath school picnic, on the Fourth, a little girl of John Ross fell from a swing, on her head, severely, but it is hoped not dangerously, injuring her. Persons should be more careful with swings. Accidents of this kind occur at almost every picnic we hear of.

Rumors of a Democratic paper are rife upon the streets. The wind word is already accomplished, but whether they will come to time on the green-back part is—well, a little doubtful. We don't feel much alarmed about it yet.

Wm. M. Locke severed his connection with the First National Bank, as cashier, on Friday last, Arthur Quick taking his position. Mr. Locke was a popular and efficient officer, and his mantle has fallen upon a gentleman worthy and fully qualified for the position.

Since assuming control of the Journal, we have been unable, until this week, to get good paper. Our size is an odd one, and paper is only made on special order. We have made arrangements with one of the best paper mills in the country to furnish us with paper. As soon as our present stock is exhausted, we shall use a much better and heavier paper than has ever been used in this office.

Rev. Mr. Bell has been retained by the Congregational Church, at a salary of $1,000. He will move his family here at once, and commence his labors in about three weeks. We take pleasure in saying that quite a number of our leading citizens contributed liberally to secure his services, and hope that his connection with our people may be both pleasant and mutually beneficial.

A short time since a scheme was laid and a bill presented to have Congress appropriate $100,000 to be used in fitting an expedition to the Polar regions. The object of the originators was to go where it was cool, during the "hated term." Had they lived in Winchester they would not have thought of such a thing. They would have gone to Harris & Love's, and called for some of the delicious ice-cream made there every evening.

DEAN, THE PHOTOGRAPHER.

Respectfully invites the citizens of Winchester and vicinity, to call at his rooms and examine "specimens of art" in his line.

OUR EXCHANGES.

Will please excuse us. In the confusion incident to moving our office, and drawing off our books, many of them have failed to receive our paper. We have got things in shape, and hereafter will send them the JOURNAL regularly.

Another Death from Coal Oil.

A friend sent us, too late for publication last week, the particulars of the death of an eight year old daughter of Mr. Helm, living near Windsor. It is the usual story—starting a fire with coal oil—the lamp exploded, throwing the burning fluid over her. She lived nearly four hours after the explosion, in great agony.

THE WEATHER.

Is hot, hot, hot, and getting warmer all the time. Thermometers are packed in ice chests to prevent the mercury bursting their tops. We've one consolation—it's hot in Kentucky as it is here. We have in our mind's eye some people who will go to a warmer climate if they don't mend their ways. We've no allusion to any of our delinquent subscribers. Of course not!

MATRIMONIAL.

The following marriage licenses were issued from June 16th to June 30th, inclusive:
Francis M. Clevelander to Malinda S. Gilmore.
Jonathan Bartholomew to Eve Powers.
Wm. Williams to Mary S. Ferguson.
Reuben Shockey to Millie Drulinger.
Squire Watson to Perry Lee Bragg.
Noah Fouty to Mary P. Kersner.

DEEDS AND MORTGAGES.

We call the attention of our friends and the public generally, to the fact that we have Deeds and Mortgages for sale, printed on heavy paper and in good style.

STATE VS. SHANEY FELT BOYS.

THE TRUE EVIDENCE AT LAST.

Their Innocence Established Beyond a Doubt.

A SILENT BUT POWERFUL WITNESS FOUND.

The readers of the JOURNAL doubtless remember the case of the State vs. John and Henry Shaneyfelt, indicted for grand larceny, which was tried in this county about four years ago. The defendants were buying and shipping cattle. A hindoo cow belonging to a Mr. Moyer, residing near Deerfield, was missing about the time that the defendants passed through that place with a drove of cattle they were bringing to this point for shipment. They were at once arrested for stealing and driving her off, several witnesses swearing very positively that they saw the cow in the defendants' drove, their attention having been attracted by the familiar sound of the cow's bell. The evidence was seemingly conclusive as to their guilt, and had it not been for Uncle Johnny Williamson, our present Recorder, at that time agent of the Bellefontaine Railroad at this place, they would undoubtedly have been sent to the penitentiary. Mr. Williamson had examined the cattle very closely, and was very positive in his testimony that there was no hindoo cow among them. This raised a doubt as to the guilt of the accused, in the minds of a part of the jury, which resulted in a disagreement and discharge of the jury.

A change of venue was then taken to Wayne county, where the case still remains, and it having been continued from term to term. Within the past few days a discovery was made which establishes their innocence beyond a doubt. The skeleton of a cow was found in a swamp. The bell, strap and horns, have been identified by Mr. Moyer and several of his neighbors. The cow had wandered into the swamp, mired down and perished.

This is one of the most remarkable cases on record. That the witnesses for the prosecution swore to what they believed to be true, we have no reason to doubt; yet the recent discovery proves them to have been badly mistaken. The case will of course be dismissed. But an injustice was done that can not be so easily remedied. Aside from the anxiety, time and money it has cost them, the reputation of the young men has, for the time at least, been injured.

During the past week we have had a number of men come in and place their names upon our subscription book, remarking as they did so that, as election times came on, they wanted to know the state of affairs in the county. This is a commendable spirit. In a "government of the people" every voter should know precisely how the two parties stand in his own neighborhood. No other means will bring this information so readily as the home newspaper.

Some, also, have subscribed for a friend living at a distance, thus conveying abroad intelligence concerning the country. This may result in many cases to the benefit of all in the county. Men are continually seeking places for homes, for farms, for business of all kinds, and often the county newspaper is consulted with reference to these matters. It is an index of the county or town where it is published. Therefore if your home paper is a good one, take it and send it abroad, that others may know of your town and country; if it is not a good one come in with subscriptions, with items of home interest, and thereby assist to make it a good one. We invite all who know that their neighbors do not take a home paper, to bring them up to the office, whether Democratic or Republican, that they may see, hear and then subscribe.

School Statistics and Revenue.

We are under obligations to our worthy Auditor for the following statement of the number of children in each township in this county, and the amount of school money paid to the different township Trustees. It should have appeared last week, but was crowded out by a press of other matter:

Townships.	No. of chil.	Total tuition revenue.
White River.	1,371	$6,546 74
Washington.	793	2,979 13
Green's Fork.	729	2,980 26
Stony Creek.	377	1,278 36
Nettle Creek.	551	1,623 78
West River.	526	1,341 75
Greene.	339	729 23
Ward.	639	1,779 74
Jackson.	549	2,065 27
Wayne.	754	1,955 38
Monroe.	576	1,945 38
Franklin.	567	1,219 65
Union City.	358	1,900 67
Total.	8,128	$28,029 83

We learn from the Joy and Adams Republican that the Treasurer of that county has returned home; and every thing is square. The trouble seems to have arisen from the fact of his having paid out more money on county orders than belonged to that fund, and loaning large sums of money to his friends. An examination of his books, notes and accounts has been made and shows up all right.

We gladly make the correction, as we published a statement that he had defaulted. When we published the statement, we believed it to be true, for the reason that he was imbibing large quantities of the liquid plank of the Democratic platform, and very naturally concluded that he was following the example of four defaulting Democratic officials of his county.

Mr. McKinney, the Democratic nominee for Congress in the Fourth Ohio district, has hit upon a plan to secure his election, both novel, and if carried out, successful. He simply invites Republicans to abandon their party, and join with the Democrats in electing him. It will be seen at once that the Gordian knot is cut. The method is so charmingly simple that it must find many admirers and followers.

THE NEW RAILROAD.

On Friday last the track of the new Railroad crossed the county line and is laid considerably over half the distance from Richmond to this place. By the time this paper is read, they will be but a short distance below Lynn, which place they will reach Saturday. It was expected that they would be there by Friday, but railroad men, like others, must observe the Fourth, which threw them one day later.

The citizens of Lynn and vicinity propose to celebrate its completion to that place by a public dinner, speeches, &c. General Stone thinks the road will be completed to this place by the 10th of August, should the weather continue favorable.

The assault and battery case of Shinn vs. Grunden is also disposed of. Shinn is very sore over it. —Greenfield Commercial.

Business Now, Friends.

I have come nearly to the conclusion that settling up accounts is only a respectable way of losing. I don't want to reach that opinion entirely, and therefore will be at Winchester for some days, immediately after the 14th inst., and expect everybody to settle. Please make arrangements accordingly, that I may square up with all. "Money scarce and times dull" won't pay my dues, or they would be gladly accepted. A little effort by each will save all trouble. Play fair and all will go smooth, but I must have some money. "A wink is as good as a nod," &c.

At a meeting of the Randolph County Agricultural Society, held in Winchester, on the 11th day of June, 1870, the time for holding the next annual Fair was set for the 20th day of September, and holding four days.

The Fair grounds will be enlarged, and all the necessary arrangements will be made to render this one of the best Fairs ever held in the county.

By order of the Board.

J. B. ROUTH, Sec'y.
